

The One Must Have!

#2979 1128 21A

The only thing everyone must have is generally not known! Very few people in the world are aware of the one thing that would make them happy, contented, and assured of the future. From the day of our birth, we are not aware of what our attitude should be and what our one need really is. If we made a long list of wants—the one thing of major importance would be missing.

We could think that some answer to prayer or some manifestation of divine power is what we need—but it is not the one must have! We could think that such an experience would perfect our faith; give inner peace; and enable us to trust God for anything—but experiences can become idols—something we could depend on for the next victory.

It is a blessing to receive an encouraging answer to prayer, or to experience God's power in seeing a change we prayed for, but the all-important need is knowing God. To know Him is to trust Him—which means to love Him with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength Mark 12:30. It is to talk with Him personally and privately—that is the one important thing.

Most people think that money would make them happy. Millions go into serious financial debt in their quest for a must have—like higher education that would eventually result in a higher salary. That, they reason, is their one must have in life. Others may remarry—hoping that is the answer—but the happiness they seek is generally not the result.

God often allows us to have things we think we want, so that we can learn that those things do not bring the satisfaction we thought they would. Our only need and must have is God Himself. The human heart needs something to love—it is our nature to be that way. We are not happy unless we have someone or something to love.

Any human object of our love can change, however, and when it does change, we are unhappy. Loving some thing or someone on earth can later prove to be a big disappointment.

Money is needed to buy things and to do things, but if our primary goal in life is to make more money, it will prove to be a curse instead of a blessing. Money never has, nor ever will, make people supremely happy—at least not for long. It can buy a new car, designer clothes, expensive foods, and a house in the suburbs, but these are all temporary at best.

Money cannot buy peace; cannot forgive sins; cannot make someone treat us right; cannot purchase a divine nature; and cannot guarantee eternal life. Although people may obtain fame, fortune, power, and influence, these things always prove a disappointment in the final analysis.

Having God—Who is perfect in love; Who never changes; Who never loves someone else more than He does us; Who is infinite in wisdom; is always merciful and ready to forgive; Who has unlimited power, so “All things are possible” with Him Matthew 19:26; Who can create anything we need; and is always with us and by our side—He is our one Real Need—He is our Must Have in life!

Only God can deliver us from anxiety; eliminate fear; take away doubt and shield us from Satan's torments. God is the only One who can take resentment out of our heart; deliver us from unbelief and open our eyes to His Truth. Only God can do this—money cannot.

If money is the supreme object of our heart, it really just multiplies the power of the devil. 1 Timothy 6:9 “They that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.”

Our only need—concerning good health and divine healing, is to have the great God of the universe—Who is limitless in love, mercy, and power; Who is the Maker of the human body, to be by our side; ready to forgive our sins and to heal our afflictions—without cost. 1 Peter 2:24 “Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.” Isaiah 53:5.

Many people wish they had wealthy parents who would buy them anything they desired—a new sports car; the latest cell phone; designer clothing; top-of-the-line sound system; eating at the best restaurants, and season passes for luxury boxes at sporting events. Even though many long to have rich parents, we already have the living God Ephesians 2:4 “Who is rich in mercy” with us; Who is our Father, and Who wants us to be heirs of His wealth.

We can approach our heavenly Father at any time of the day or night to obtain the supplies we need—even though very few really believe that. James 4:2 “Ye have not, because ye ask not.” Most people would rather be cold, hungry, and lack clothing, rather than trust God in faith.

Even though the majority of people will not trust God for anything, it does not alter the fact that the Maker of Heaven and earth—with immense wealth to supply every need and take care of every interest—who feeds the ravens and clothes the lilies, and who does not let a sparrow to fall without His permission, is by our side every moment.

Matthew 6:31-33 “Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ ‘For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.’”

The believer has equal inheritance rights with Christ—to God’s entire wealth—all of His spiritual, physical, and monetary blessings. Our only need and must have then; is to know the true God—who made everything and owns everything. God is waiting to do things for us, so we are to let Him do them—by learning how to access those blessings.

He is who He says He is; He is with us today and His services are free—we have unlimited access to Him. Contentment and satisfaction can only be enjoyed when God is the supreme object of our life. A personal relationship with God is linked to getting rid of self. The more self dies in us, the more God is revealed to us. The ultimate reward of this faith, trust, and knowing God, is eternal life.

Multitudes believe the facts of the Bible, but do not trust the God of the Bible. They are not willing to get rid of the idols they have in place. Just believing that the crucifixion of Christ took place—but not trusting on what His shed Blood accomplished—will take millions of people to the flames—that is the worst fate imaginable!

We are appalled by the horrible things happening in the world—serious crimes, terrorism, mass shootings, car bombs, war, murders, kidnappings, assaults, and assassinations—but as horrible as they are, they pale in comparison to the horrifying fate of eternal Hell fire. Unless self dies in us, and we come to know God as He really is, we would not enter Heaven.

The first condition of knowing God is a forgiven heart—forgiven because we truly repented; we confessed our sins; we removed wrong ways and eliminated unscriptural attitudes we had; and because we are not allowing any idol to take God’s place in our life. The moment we permit anything that would defile our conscience, we are no longer pure in heart. When our conscience is defiled, God’s Truth is obstructed.
Matthew 5:8 “Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.”

When we have made a definite decision to not tolerate anything in our life that is contrary to God’s will and Word, He can then reveal His presence and power in our life, and what that presence should mean to us. We are to confess and discard any known sin, and then believe that God accepts us because He has promised to do that—as well as 1 John 1:9 “To cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”

At that point in time, we should be willing to meet anything, everyone, and every situation as God’s Word says to meet them—not as the world meets such things. It does not matter if it is a difficult person, an unreasonable employer, an upsetting situation, or a financial lack, we are to meet the situation as the Word of God says to meet it.

We are to believe by faith in the holy Scriptures, that our heart is pure, and that we are righteous in the sight of God, because He said we are when we confess to Him and truly repent. To the extent that we meet things in a scriptural way—that extent self will die, and Christ will live in our heart—a must have position.

King Jehoshaphat thought he had faith in God, but he did not really know God. His happiness was on the surface, and it vanished when three nations came against him. He was much distressed and he “greatly feared” 2 Chronicles 20:3. Had the king really known God, he would not have been fearful.

The servant of Elisha feared like the king feared, so the prophet had to tell him 2 Kings 6:16 “They that be with us are more than they that be with them.” No matter what trial we face or what enemy confronts us, that is our answer. Psalm 46:2 “Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea.”

If we do not see it or do not believe it, we need to pray as the prophet did. 2 Kings 6:17 “LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.” That is true Christianity and genuine believing faith in God.

If someone does a spiteful thing to us or makes an insulting remark to us, we feel hurt, betrayed, and resentful—but if we let it go, give it to God, and forget about the harm and the hurt, the result is seeing God for who He is; and seeing His divine power work for us. God is responsible to give us the power to believe; and we are responsible to give Him a willing heart that believes.

When we have an empty wallet, an empty stomach, and an empty cupboard—and we have made up our mind not to tell anyone or not to hint to one person that we need anything—that is when our heart is searched, and God is revealed.

By committing the entire matter to Him in prayer and in faith, we will not only have peace and the faith to trust God, but we will also have a new revelation of Him. Really knowing God is our only real need—it is a Must Have of the heart!
